

The changes proposed are in opposition to the public interest. They will cause increased concentration of the power in fewer hands and restrict media diversity. It is time to protect the people, not the powers, and reject this undemocratic and unnecessary change.